

Psychology Year 10 Learning Journey

On to
YEAR
11

Defining mental health and the effects of stigma and discrimination, explanations and supporting studies of depression and schizophrenia, and treatments of disorders

Psychological Problems

Experimental method including ethical issues, types of experiment and observational studies

Developmental

Stages of development including changes in the brain, theories of how cognition changes throughout development, studies to support and how this can be applied to an educational setting

Explanations of criminal behaviour and studies that investigate these theories, and options for dealing with criminal behaviour

Criminal

Start
YEAR
10

The different types of crime and what societies define as a criminal act, methods of collecting data and the basics of psychological investigation

