Intent:

Examining the varied ways we behave and how our brains work, exploring different perspectives and explanations through the study of scientific investigations.

Psychology Year 12 Learning Journey

Explanations of the effects of healthy and unhealthy bonds with caregivers and how to measure these

Psychopathology

Characteristics, explanations and treatments for disorders

Attachment

Models of memory and forgetting, factors that affect the accuracy of memory and how to improve this

Social Influence

Explanations of why and how people change their behaviour based on the people around them

Memory

Approaches

Overview of the different perspectives in Psychology

YEAR 12

Research Methods

Research skills of how psychological experiments are carried out